

Allison Laird

Manager, KPMG LLP

Allison Laird is a leader in the Mergers & Acquisitions (M&A) Tax practice at KPMG LLP. Prior to joining the M&A Tax group, Allison worked in KPMG's Federal Tax and State and Local Tax groups.

She is an accomplished tax professional with nearly a decade of leadership and project management experience at KPMG, serving major clients and helping them address their tax consulting and compliance needs. Allison has also worked in KPMG's London office providing M&A Tax services to private equity clients.

Allison has served as an instructor in several of the firm's local, regional, and national training programs and courses. She was also a participant in KPMG's Southeast Area Joint Advisory and Tax Managers' Forum.

303 Peachtree Street
Suite 2000
Atlanta, GA 30308

404.222.3036
anlaird@kpmg.com

Relevant Experience

- Primary Coordinator of KPMG's Atlanta office biennial sponsorship of a Habitat for Humanity house, involving 200-250 partners and employees
- Active member of KPMG's Involve Volunteerism Committee, coordinating and providing support for multiple firm sponsored volunteerism events including Relay for Life and Family Volunteer Day
- Skilled Supervisor for Atlanta Habitat for Humanity, volunteering at least one Saturday a month, to lead groups of volunteers in various build tasks
- Board Member and Treasurer, Countryside at Cumberland
- Leadership Team Member, Mt. Paran Church auxiliary group for married couples
- Former President and Executive Committee Member for Alpha Phi Omega, provided organizational leadership and organized biweekly service projects for local and national non-profit organizations

Background

Allison received both her Bachelor of Science and Masters of Accounting in Taxation from the University of Florida.

Allison is a Certified Public Accountant licensed in the state of Georgia. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Georgia Society of Certified Public Accountants.